Dated: July 20, 2011. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Place: New Delhi

Industry Trends and Business Analysis Volatility ruled the Indian stock market during the financial year ended 31 starch, 2011. The key benchmark indices edged higher since test 31 months, many times during the year under review, helped by sustained buying by the foreign investors and strong global markets.

Foreign institutional investors (FIIs) made a beeline for Indian equities, helping stocks register strong gains. Fils played a significant role in domestic equity markets and their movement (inflow and outflow) caused fluctuation in benchmark indices.

The market witnessed a strong post-Budget rally driven by sustained buying by foreign funds since the presentation of the Union Budget 2010-2011 on 26 February 2010, Foreign funds have shown steady interest in Indian equities since the presentation of above budget which emphasised on fiscal consolidation and higher consumption power

The market attained its highest closing level in more than 25 months on 7th April, 2010. The barometer index BSE Sensex scaled the psychological 18,000 level in intradey trade but it settled below that level. As debt worried the euro zone weighed on investors? sentiment, the barometer index BSE Sensex fell below the psychological 17,000 level after filtring with that level throughout the day on 6 May 2010. The market tumbled in May, 2010 on persistent concerns about the euro zone sovereign debt situation and tougher financial regulations in some developed markets. Investors feared that the euro zone's efforts to tackle its sovereign debt crisis will fall short, jeopardizing the global economic recovery. However anticipation of robust corporate financial performance boosted the domestic bourses after front line companies paid higher advance taxes for the first quarter ended June 2010. Rally in world stocks aided the rally on the domestic bourses as euro zone debt worries eased and the market rose as a result of substantial purchases by foreign across India with a single tax structure.

In a major development, the stock market regulator Securities & Exchange Board of India (Sebi) allowed physical settlement of both stock options and stock futures in July, 2010. Prior to that only cash settlement of derivatives was allowed. The Centre and states in July 2010 arrived at a broad consensus on rolling out independent India's biggest tax reforms by introducing the goods and services tax (GST), which is to replace the existing value added tax(VAT), service tax, exclse duties and central sales tax among others that will simplify the manner in which corporates, small enterprises and traders will be levied taxes on goods and services. The new indirect tax reform is to streamline the movement of goods and services across India with a single tax structure.

On the macro front, India reported its strongest GDP number since the global financial crisis began, expanding at the fastest pace in 2-1/2 years in O1 Juno 2010. The gross domestic product (GDP) grew 8.8% in Q1 June 2010.

Key benchmark indices surged to 2-1/2-year highs on 9° August 2010. The BSE 30-share Sensex rose 143.51 points or 0.79% to 18,297.50, its highest closing level since 5° February 2008. The S&P CNX Nifty gained 46.90 points or 0.86% to 5486.15, its highest closing level since 18° January 2008. Bulls were in command so that key hearth state (virtues achieved highest closing level since 18° January 2008. Bulls were in command so that key hearth state (virtues achieved highest closing level accord time. In more as the key benchmark indices achieved highest closing level second time, in more than 2-1/2-years on 19th August 2010. The BSE 30-share Sensex jumped 197.82 points or 1.08% to 18,454.94, its highest level since 5th February 2008.

Improved rainfall in the year 2010 helped farmers plant various crops over a larger area than last year. The kharif sowing has been 10% more than the drought-hill 2009, leading to optimistic outlook for harvests, Good rains in August 2010 and in the first week of September 2010 strengthened the optimism about a record kharif

The key indices scaled 31-month highs on 6th September 2010, on signs the global economic recovery. Besides strong global cues, robust July 2010 Industrial production growth good monsoon in the year 2018 and sustained buying by foreign lunds, boosted domestic investor sentiment. Consequently the two key benchmark indices — the barometer index BSE Sensex and the 50-unit S&P CNX Nithy witnessed a fresh 31-month highs on 6", 8" and 9" September 2010, respectively. Strong momentum and substantial buying by Fills helped the key benchmark indices reached above psychological levels, sarsex crossed psychologically crucial 20,000 mark and the Nitty crossed 6000 mark till the last week of September, 2010.

The government on 23rd September 2010, doubled foreign investment limits in government securities to $10 billion from $5 billion and increased the limit for corporate bonds to $20 billion from $15 billion.

corporate conds to $20 billion from $15 billion.
As foreign funds continued to pump capital into domestic equities, bolstered by the government's move to relax certain foreign Investment limits, foreign funds continued to aggressively mop up Indian shares. A sizable chuck of FII inflow the year 2010 was from India-focused exchange traded funds as well as long-only funds. FII inflow in the calendar year 2010 totaled Rs 1,33,256 crore. The annual inflow in 2010 was at record level.

The key benchmark indices tumbled and extended losses due to heavy selling by toreign funds and underperforming mostly higher global stocks initially in the month of December, 2010. Meanwhile, corporate India reportedly paid 15-20% higher tax for the third quarter, consequently the barometer index BSE Sensex and the 50-unit S&P CNX Nifty regained their psychological 20,000 and 6,000 mark respectively As macroeconomic wornes arising from a high global crude oil prices weighed on investor sentiment, the key benchmark indices shed. A surge in crude oil price to 26-month high, stoked macroeconomic worries, which also weighed on sentiment. Global food prices reached a new record peak in January, 2011 caused by steadily rise in the food prices. The barometer index BSE Sensex fell below the psychological 19,000 mark and the 50-unit S&P CNX Nifty fell below 5,700 level, in January, 2011. Concerns of political instability over the 2G scandal added to the already littery investor sentiments with the barometer index. On the macro front, a surge in crude oil prices amid unrest in Egypt added to concerns about high inflation and rising interest rates caused the market to correct sharply in Fab, 2011. In addition selling by foreign funds also weighed on the sentiment

To control surging inflation, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) at its quarterly policy review in January 2011 raised reporate by 25 basis points to 6.5% and the reverse reporate by 25 basis points to 5.5%.

The favorable announcements in the Union Budget 2011-12 unveiled on Monday, The tavorable announcements in the Union Budget 2011-12 unveited on Monday. 28* February 2011, were lower fiscal deficit target set by the government for the year ending March 2012, a lower-than-expected not borrowing programme, a thrust on infrastructure and agricultural sectors, reduction in surcharge on corporate Lay permission for foreign investors to invest in mutual land schemes and plan to move towards direct transfer of cash subsidy to people living below poverty line. The basic excise duty that was kept unchanged was a major positive for the Indian industry. Among the unfavourable announcements were increase in social sector spending and a plan to bring lood security bill which could strait government's finances going ahead. A slight increase in minimum alternate tax (MAT) also unnerved some

The Government allowed foreign institutional investors (FIIs) to invest in mutual fund achieves and raised limit the FII investment limit in corporate bonds for investment in infrastructure

The Indian market surged post the Union Budget announcement despite it being a much muted one as far as outright referm announcements are concerned. The positive mood post the budget was fell to be dying down as the wider macro concerns and global geo-political risk took over. The Libya crisis continued to deteriorate while the crude oil price continued to rise.

FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Your Company's performance in the linancial year under review is at par with the performance in the previous linancial year in terms of profit after tax as its profit after tax in the current financial year is Rs. 48.23 Lacs as compared to previous year's profit after tax amounting to Rs. 48.12 Lacs.

The Indian capital markets witnessed robust activity in the earlier part of FY 11. markets were also positively influenced by some reasonably priced large public sector issues like Coal India. However, subsequently negative sentiments adversely effected the markets. The markets, therefore, went through some difficult times after scaling a new high on Diwall 2010.

The equity markets continued to be affected by a lack of interest by retail investors, volatile Fill flows and concerns on corporate earnings. High interest rates also affected capital raising activity. The commodity markets were also volatile in view of pressure on global commodity prices. However, with an expected boost in the infrastructure expenditure and with the industries already fecing capacity crunch, we hope investment activity will revive. Assuming normal monsoon, as predicted, and interest rate stabilization we expect capital markets to improve from September - October 2011.

Management Discussion and Analysis of financial condition and results of operation of the Company for the year under review, as stipulated in Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement with the Stock Exchanges, are given as a separate statement in the Annual Report.

BHARAT BHUSHAN FINANCE & COMMODITY BROKERS LIMITED

(Formerly known as Bharat Bhushan Share & Commodity Brokers Ltd.)

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(Annexed to and forming part of the statement of accounts for the year ended 31st March, 2011)

- A. SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTING :-
- (i) The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention except where otherwise stated.
- (II) The company follows the mercantile system of accounting.
- B. REVENUE RECOGNITION :-
- Income / Expenses/ Revenues are accounting for on accrual basis in accordance with the Accounting Standard (AS-9) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Accordingly, wherever there are uncertainties in the ascertainment / realization of Income, the same is not accounted for.
- C. FIXED ASSETS: -

Fixed assets are stated at cost less depreciation.

D. DEPRECIATION :-

Depreciation is charged on all the assets on the straight-line method in the manner and at the rates specified in schedule XIV to the Companies Act. 1956.

E. INVESTMENTS :-

Investments (long term) are valued at cost less permanent diminution, if any.

F. STOCK IN TRADE :-

Stock in Trade of shares/Debentures/Units etc. is valued at scrip wise lower of cost or net realizable value.

G. DEFERRED REVENUE EXPENDITURE :-

Preliminary and share issue expenses are amortized over a period of Ten years.

H. EMPLOYEES BENEFITS:-

Employee benefits are recognized / accounted for on the basis of revised AS-15 detailed as under:-

- (a) Short term employee benefits are recognized as expense at the undiscounted amount in the profit & loss account of the year in which they are incurred.
- (b) Employee benefits under defined benefit plans comprise of gratuity which is accounted for as at the year end based on actuarial valuation by following the projected unit credit (PUC) method.
- (c) Leave encashment benefits are paid to employees at the year end.
- (d) Termination benefits are recognized as an expense as and when incurred.
- (e) The actuarial gains & losses arising during the year are recognized in profit & loss account of the year without restoring to any amortization.

I. DEFERRED TAXATION:-

Tax liability of the company is estimated considering the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Deferred Tax is recognized subject to the consideration of prudence, on timing difference, being the difference between taxable income and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods.

J. IMPAIRMENT OF FIXED ASSETS

Consideration is given at each balance sheet date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment of the carrying amount of the Company's fixed assets. If any indication exists, an asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An impairment loss is recognized whenever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. Reversal of impairment losses recognized in prior years is recorded when there is an indication that the impairment losses recognized for the Reversal of impairment losses recognized in prior years is recorded when there is an indication that the impairment losses recognized for the asset no longer exist or have decreased. However, the increase in carrying amount of an asset due to reversal of an impairment loss is recognized to the extent it does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the assets in prior years.

K. CONTINGENCIES

The company creates a provision when there is present obligation as a result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.
